The film is a remake of the 2013 Bollywood film Chennai Express. It is an adaptation of the 2011 Malayalam movie M.I.A. Fight Club (2010), which in turn was based on the 2004 American drama film Fight Club. The film stars Saif Ali Khan, Sonam Kapoor, Deepika Padukone, Priyanka Chopra, Siddharth Malhotra, Kunal Kemmu, and Abhay Deol. The film was released on 19 October 2016 to mixed reviews. Plot Jack (Abhay Deol) is an international expert in detecting people using biometrics and a former special officer of the Indian Government who has his own business and keeps a low profile. He comes across the beautiful and innocent Rosa (Priyanka Chopra), who is also working at a digital marketing firm as a marketing head, and falls in love with her. After spending some time, Rosa is arrested and charged with murder, and Jack discovers her involvement with a popular gangster named Kulbhushan Kharbanda (Shah Rukh Khan). Rosa and her accomplices are sentenced to death and Jack is left in a dilemma on how to help her. He then devises a plan to help Rosa and her gangsters by posing as a wealthy businessman in the name of his company name 'JuJu Bazaar' to travel around India in the hope of spotting and catching the gangsters. However, he does not know that the gangsters will target him to seek revenge for all his misdeeds. He will have to fight the same fight against them that he fought in the past while also facing two other gangsters who
